Campus SaVE Act Policy

In order to ensure that College students and employees are provided healthy education and work environments, the College is determined to provide a campus atmosphere free of violence for all members of the campus community. In compliance with federal law, specifically the Jeanne Clery Act (Clery Act) and the Campus Sexual Violence Elimination Act (SaVE Act), the College has adopted policies and procedures to prevent and respond to incidents of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence and stalking. This policy applies equally to all members of the College's community: students, faculty, staff, contract employees, volunteers, and campus visitors.

Dating Violence and Kansas Law – Kansas has laws against dating violence behaviors such as sexual assault, domestic violence, and stalking. However, the specific term "dating violence" is not used specifically in these laws. According to 34 USCS § 12291(a)(10), the term dating violence means "violence committed by a person:

(Kansas Statute 21-5427).

Stalking includes any behaviors or activities that collectively instill fear in a victim, and/or threatens their public safety, mental health, or physical health, or causes them to suffer substantial emotional distress. Such behaviors and activities may include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Non-consensual communication, including face-to-face communication, telephone calls, voice messages, e-mails, text messages, written letters, gifts, or any other communications that are undesired and place another person in fear.

For the reporting period of January 1 through December 31, 2024, there were no reported incidents of hazing involving students or employees.

The college remains committed to fostering a safe and respectful environment. Hazing in any form is strictly prohibited by college policy and Kansas state law. Preventative education, anonymous reporting mechanisms, and disciplinary procedures are in place to address any concerns.

Minors
Reports received by the College concerning the abuse of a minor or juvenile must be reported to state officials in compliance with state law (Kansas Statute 38-2223) Requiring mandatory reporting of child abuse.

Reporting an Incident
The College encourages any member of the College community who has experienced or knows of another member of the community who has experienced sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, to report the incident to the College or to the police. Although the final decision lies with the member of the College community as to whether they want to file a report.

If a college student, faculty or staff member, volunteer, visitor, or contractor has experienced sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, they should immediately report the incident to the College's Campus Security Authorities (CSA) either at 2562 Centennial Road or by phone:

- Title IX Coordinator/Vice President of Student and Academic Affairs Officer at 785-309-3120
- Director of Human Resources at 785-309-3160
- Student Enrollment Specialist at 785-309-3100

The CSA will assist all members of the College community by assessing the incident, advising the individual on how they can seek legal protection, making the individual aware of medical, counseling, and other support services. If a reported incident did not occur on campus, the CSA can assist the individual in notifying the local police department with jurisdiction over the crime. In case of an emergency or ongoing threat, the individual should get to a safe location and call 911. Calling 911 will put the reporting party in touch with the local police.

Individuals are not required to report to area law enforcement to receive assistance from or pursue any options within the College.

Reporting sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence and stalking to the police does not commit the individual to further legal action. However, the earlier an incident is reported, the easier it will be for the police to investigate, if the individual decides to proceed with criminal charges.

In certain instances, the College may need to report an incident to law enforcement authorities. Such circumstances include any incidents that warrant the undertaking of additional safety and security measures for the protection of the individual and the campus community or other situations in which there is clear and imminent danger, and when a weapon may have been involved. However, it is crucial in these circumstances to consult with supervisory staff since reporting may compromise the safety of the individual. This may also warrant mass communication to ensure timely warning. Personal safety concerns are often very important for individuals of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking. Crisis intervention and individual safety concerns will take precedence.

Written Notification of Rights and Options for Individuals
Any student or employee, who reports an incident of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, whether the incident occurred on or off campus, shall receive a written explanation of their rights and options as provided for under this policy. These rights and options include the right(s) of the individual to:

- Go to court, and to file a domestic abuse complaint requesting an order restraining your attacker from abusing you, and/or an order directing your attacker to leave your household, building, school, college, or workplace:
- Seek a criminal complaint for threats, assault and battery, or other related offenses.
- Seek medical treatment (the police will arrange transportation for you to the nearest hospital or otherwise assist you in obtaining medical treatment if you wish)
- Request that a police officer assist you by arranging transportation or by taking you to safe place, such as a shelter or a family or friend's residence; and

- Obtain a copy of the police incident report at no cost from the police department.

Rights of Accused
Students or employees accused of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking behaviors have rights on this campus. Those include:

- The right to know the nature and source of the evidence relevant to the case.
- The right to an advocate or attorney to aid in the preparation and presentation of the case.
- Access to services from the counseling or other student/employee service groups
- Consultation with a campus official on academic support services and referrals to community resources when appropriate.

Procedures Individuals Should Follow
If an incident of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking occurs, it is important to preserve evidence so that successful criminal prosecution remains an option. The individual of a sexual assault should not wash, shower, or bathe, douche, brush teeth, comb hair, or change clothes prior to a medical examination or treatment. If the individual has removed the clothing, they were wearing during the assault prior to seeking medical treatment, that clothing should be placed in a brown paper, not plastic, bag and brought to the hospital when treatment is sought. If the individual is still wearing the clothes that they were wearing during an assault, they should bring a change of clothes with them to the hospital so that the clothes containing possible evidence can be preserved and examined for evidence of the crime.

Evidence of violence, such as bruising or other visible injuries, following an incident of sexual assault, or domestic or dating violence, should be documented by taking photographs. Evidence of stalking, including any communications such as written notes, email, voice mail, or other electronic communications sent by the stalker, should be saved, and not altered in any way.

On and Off Campus Resources
The College and the City of Salina, all offer important resources to individuals of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, including medical treatment, counseling services, and advocacy that individuals may wish to utilize.

The following College staff can assist members of the College community in considering their options and navigating through any resources they may elect to pursue.

The College requires all College employees to share with the College's Title IX Coordinator information they learn concerning a report of sexual assault, or an incident of domestic or dating violence, or stalking, so that the Title IX Coordinator can investigate the incidents, track trends (including possible multiple reports involving the same assailant) and determine whether steps are needed to ensure the safety of the community. Reports of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, which are shared with the College's Title IX Coordinator or other College officials, will be treated with the greatest degree of respect and privacy possible while still fulfilling the College's obligation to investigate and effectively respond to the report. Every effort will be made to limit the scope of information shared to keep it to a minimum of detail, and only when necessary. It is the individual's choice whether to participate in the investigation; however, the College may proceed with the investigation without the individual's participation if there is a potential threat to other members of the community.

An individual's ability to speak in confidence and with confidentiality may be essential to their recovery. The College thus expects employees to treat information they learn concerning incidents of reported sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking with as much respect and as much privacy as possible. College employees must share such information only with those College officials who must be informed of the information pursuant to college policy. Failure by a College employee to maintain privacy in accordance with the College's policy will be grounds for discipline up to and including termination.

Information related to an individual of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking will be kept confidential except when dictated by law, College policy, or when necessary to protect the safety of the campus community.

Reported information is kept private to the extent possible by federal and state law, and College policy, however Kansas law includes clear limitations on legal confidentiality:

- Confidentiality exists in certain instances for medical personnel, counselors, social workers, clergy, attorneys, and rape crisis counselors, but information may be required to be released through a subpoena or court order.
- Information reported to anyone not in one of the above-named positions may have to be disclosed when required by law or pursuant to a subpoena.
- When medical information is received from an individual of sexual assault, domestic violence, or dating violence, such medical information will be kept confidential to the extent permitted and required by law including, but not limited to, the Americans with Disabilities Act and its Amendment and the Family and Medical Leave Act.
- When it is determined that maintaining confidentiality puts the individual or others at risk of physical harm, those individuals deemed necessary to protect the safety of the individual and others, or to enforce an order of protection, will be given the minimum amount of information required. When possible, the College will provide the individual of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking with notice of the intent to provide information to other employees and/or Safety and Security personnel.

While federal law requires the College to include certain reported incidents of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking among its annual campus crime statistics that are reported in the College's annual Clery Reports, such information will be reported in a manner that does not permit identification of individual. Crime reporting statistics are also included in a Title IX trend report maintained by the College.

Educational Programs

The College is committed to increasing the awareness of and prevention of violence. The College makes continued efforts to provide students and employees with education programming, and strategies intended to prevent rape, acquaintance rape, sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking before they occur.

To address the issue of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking in a college environment, the College offers practical guidance for risk reduction, violence prevention, and bystander intervention strategies.

New Student Orientation – Orientation programs addressing active bystander awareness, support services, medical amnesty, wellness, and personal safety are delivered by members of Student Government and the Office of Student Services to first year and transfer students.

Employee Orientation – All new employees receive training on Sexual Harassment and Campus SaVE through Human Resources. All employees receive annual training during in-service.

Bulletin Board Campaigns – The Office of Student Services and Human Resources Coordinator work jointly to use passive programming strategies in the student lounges, classrooms, and buildings to provide information on crime prevention and safety issues related to College students and employees on and off campus.

Newsletters/Social Media – Safety awareness and reminders are sent throughout the year to employees and students through a variety of social media methods and resources by posting videos, flyers, etc.

Disciplinary Procedures

The College strictly prohibits all acts of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. In addition to facing criminal investigation and prosecution, students, employees, and other affiliates may also face action by the College. When students or employees are accused of having engaged in sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, the College may, depending on the facts alleged, issue interim safety measures prior to the resolution of the charges. Such interim safety measures might include issuing No Contact orders between the parties, altering an individual's work or class schedule, placing an employee accused of misconduct on administrative leave, or placing a student accused of misconduct on an interim suspension.

The College's Title IX Coordinator will oversee all investigations of allegations of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking incidents. Employees who are found responsible for having committed such a violation could face termination of employment, and students who are found responsible for having committed such a violation may face disciplinary probation, deferred suspension, suspension from the College, or expulsion from the College. In addition, the College may issue No Contact Orders and No Trespass Orders to those found responsible.

If a Title IX investigation concludes that evidence exists which suggests a student more likely than not engaged in sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, the Title IX/Vice President of Student and Academic Affairs Officer (785-309-3120) will handle the adjudication pursuant to the Student Code of Conduct. The Human Resources Coordinator (785-309-3160) will handle any incidents involving employees and College affiliates who are found by the College to have engaged in behavior that violates College policy, including but not limited to sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking.

All investigations and resolutions handled by the College, whether the incident is reported to have occurred on or off campus, shall be prompt, fair, and impartial. The identified College officials who investigate will receive annual training on the nature of the types of cases they are handling, how to investigate, and how to conduct a proceeding in a manner that protects the safety of Individuals and promotes accountability.

The College seeks to investigate and adjudicate any official complaints of sexual abuse, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking that are filed with the College within sixty (60) days of receipt of that complaint, unless mitigating circumstances require the extension of time frames beyond sixty (60) days. Such circumstances may include the complexity of the allegations, the number of witnesses involved, the availability of the parties or witnesses, the effect of a concurrent criminal investigation, College breaks or vacations that occur during the pendency of an investigation, or other unforeseen circumstances. In these matters, the complainant and the respondent shall be notified, provided an explanation, and given information about the amount of additional time required.

In all investigatory and adjudication proceedings conducted by the College concerning charges of sexual misconduct, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, including any related meetings or hearings, both the complainant and the respondent will be afforded the same due process rights, including equal opportunities to have others present. This includes the right to be accompanied by an advisor or attorney of their choice. Both the complainant and respondent will also be afforded an equal opportunity to introduce evidence and identify witnesses.

When a student is accused of any violation of the Student Conduct Code, including but not limited to charges that he or she engaged in sexual assault, domestic or dating violence, or stalking, the charges will be decided using the preponderance of evidence standard, which means that it is more likely than not that the reported misconduct occurred. The Title IX Coordinator/Vice President of Student and Academic Affairs Officer has discretion to decide whether sufficient evidence warrants referring charges of misconduct against a student to an Administrative/Faculty Hearing Board (a "Board"). If a Board hears such charges and issues a finding of responsibility against a student respondent, the Board may also recommend sanctions to the Vice President of Student and Academic Affairs Officer. However, the Vice President of Student and Academic Affairs Officer retains authority to determine the sanctions that will be issued to any student who has been found responsible for violating the Code of Conduct. Any violation may result in suspension unless evidence warrants probation.

When the Title IX Coordinator's investigation is complete and/or when a Board issues a decision, both the complainant and the respondent shall simultaneously be informed in writing within 7 business days of the outcome of the investigative or adjudicative proceeding. Both the complainant and respondent will be given the same procedures and timeframe to appeal the outcome of the proceeding, both parties will receive the same due process rights if an appeal is granted, and the parties will both receive timely notice when the outcome becomes final. Disclosure of the outcome shall be made to both parties unconditionally, and each shall be free to share or not share the details with any third parties.

Anti-Retaliation
No officer, employee, or agent of the College participating in any program under this policy shall retaliate, intimidate, threaten, coerce, or otherwise discriminate again any individual for exercising their rights or responsibilities under the Campus SaVE Act.

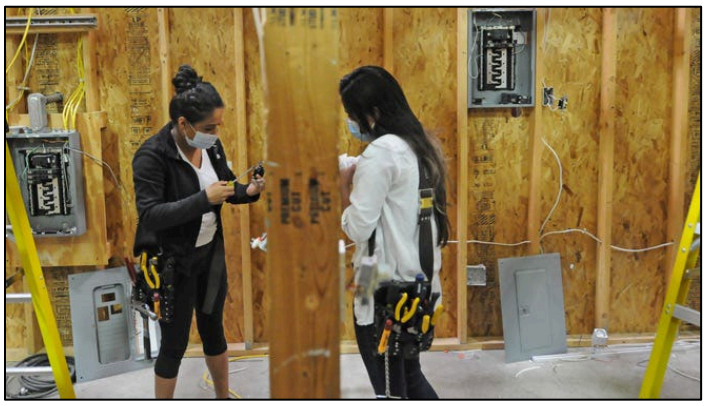
Prevention
The College believes in promoting safety on and off the campus. Some prevention strategies can help keep you and your friends safe.

Active Bystanders – Bystanders can make a difference. There are three components to Active Bystander Intervention:

- A = Assess for Safety – Ensure that all parties are safe, and it the situation requires calling authorities. When deciding to intervene, your personal safety is the #1 priority. When in doubt, call for help.
- B = Be with Others – If safe to intervene, you are likely to have a greater influence on the parties involved when you work together with someone or several people. Your safety is increased when you stay with a group of friends you know well.
- C = Care for Others – If it appears that someone's attempt to fend off unwanted sexual advances isn't working, we want you to feel responsible for the welfare of another human being and offer to help—even if that person is not aware they need help. Focus on the inappropriate behavior that should be stopped.

How to be an Active Bystander

- Educate yourself and others about sexual assault and sexual harassment.
- Talk with friends and make a commitment to intervene when you see a situation in which another person is in danger of being sexually harassed or sexually assaulted.
- Speak up against friends or acquaintances that say exploitive or demeaning statements about others or brag about sexual experiences.
- Gently offer your support if you suspect that someone close to you is being abused or has been sexually assaulted or stalked.
- Trust your intuition. If a situation does not look right, stop it. Seek assistance if necessary.
- Interrupt a compromising situation. Think ahead about ways you would interrupt including distraction, separating people, enlisting other people to intervene, and make sure to bring the person of concern to a safe place.
- Stop someone if you witness an attempt to force sex on another person. Seek assistance if necessary.
- Help when you see that someone is intoxicated or drugged and bring him or her to a safe place. Remember someone who is intoxicated or drugged cannot give consent.



Protecting Yourself and Your Friends

- Say "no" when you mean no. Communicate your limits clearly. Know what you are feeling and express yourself clearly.
- When someone says no, respect the "no".
- Be assertive. Be direct and firm with someone who is pressuring you sexually. If someone starts to offend you, respond promptly and firmly. Overly polite approaches might be misunderstood or ignored. If you are initiating the sexual activity, make sure that consent is freely and willingly present.
- Trust your intuition. If you feel you are being pressured into unwanted sexual relations, don't hesitate to express your unwillingness, even if it might appear rude. Leave the situation as soon as possible.
- If you feel a person is hesitant about having sexual relations with you, stop and make sure that consent is freely and willingly present before proceeding.
- Think about getting home. Be prepared when you are away from home to be able to leave the situation if you need to. Coordinate plans with friends and arrange transportation. Always carry cab fare.
- Attend large parties with friends you can trust. Agree to look out for one another.
- Avoid excessive use of alcohol and drugs. Alcohol and drugs interfere with clear thinking, effective communication, and your ability to respond in your own best interest. Research shows that "on average, at least 50% of college students' sexual assaults are associated with alcohol use (Abbey et al., 1996a, 1998; Copenhaver and Grauerholz, 1991; Harrington and Leitenberg, 1994; Presley et al., 1997)".
- Date Rape Drugs: GHB and Rohypnol (roofies) are colorless and odorless drugs that can be placed in drinks (alcoholic and non-alcoholic), causing unconsciousness, and amnesia. Do not accept drinks from strangers. Discard any drink you have left unattended.
- Always carry a cell phone. Even if you have no minutes, you can still dial 911.

How You Can Prevent Sexual Assaults

Understanding that certain factors contribute to sexual assaults may help you prevent one. Ineffective communication, use of drugs and alcohol, and sex role stereotypes are found repeatedly in rape situations.

If a person uses force, coercion, or threats to compel another individual to have sex against his or her will, that person has committed rape even if that individual:

- has had sex with him or her before;
- thinks he or she has been teased or led on;
- heard that some people say "no" but mean "yes";
- think it's "acceptable" to use force to get your way.

A person who says "no" to sexual relations is expressing his or her unwillingness to participate in a specific act at a specific time; this does not necessarily mean it is a personal rejection.

Accept a person's decision. "NO" means no. STOP when the person says "no". Do not assume:

- that just because a person flirts or dresses in a manner you consider sexy that he or she wants to engage in sexual relations.
- that previous permission for sexual relations means a person is under a continuing obligation to have sex with you.
- that your date wants the same degree of intimacy that you do.
- that spending money on a date entitles you to sex.

Recognizing Signs of Abusive Behavior

People who are abused may:

- Seem afraid or anxious to please their partner
- Go along with everything their partner says
- Check in often with their partner to report what they are doing
- Receive frequent, harassing phone calls from their partner
- Talk about their partner's temper, jealousy, or possessiveness
- Have frequent injuries, with the excuse of "accidents"
- Frequently miss work, school, or social occasions without explanation
- Dress in clothing designed to hide bruises or scars (long sleeves in the summer or sunglasses indoors)

- Have low self-esteem
- Be depressed, anxious, or suicidal.

CONSUMER INFORMATION

Notice of Federal Student Financial Aid Penalties for Drug Law Violations

Students and staff are hereby notified that Federal guidelines mandate that a federal or state drug conviction can disqualify a student for Federal Student Aid funds according to the following timetable.

	Possession of Illegal Drugs	Sale of Illegal Drugs
1st offense	1 year from date of conviction	2 years from date of conviction
2nd offense	2 years from date of conviction	Indefinite period
3+ offenses	Indefinite period	Indefinite period

(If the student was convicted of both possessing and selling illegal drugs, the periods of ineligibility are different, and the student will be ineligible for the longer period.)

Convictions only count if they were for an offense that occurred during a period of enrollment for which the student was receiving Title IV aid – they do not count if the offense was not during such a period. Also, a conviction that was reversed, set aside, or removed from the student's record does not count, nor does one received when he/she was a juvenile, unless the student was tried as an adult.

For this reason, any student convicted of any drug-related criminal statute must notify the Vice President of Student and Academic Affairs, in writing, no later than five days after such conviction regardless of where the offense occurred. Under state and federal law, any student convicted of a drug-related felony offense must be denied all federal and state assistance.

Students denied eligibility for an indefinite period can regain it only after successfully completing an approved rehabilitation program or if a conviction is reversed, set aside, or removed from the student's record so that fewer than two convictions for sale or three convictions for possession remain on the record. In such cases, the nature and dates of the remaining convictions will determine when the student regains eligibility.

The Higher Education Opportunity Act requires institutions to provide to every student, upon enrollment, a separate, clear, and conspicuous written notice with information on the penalties associated with drug-related offenses under existing section 488(g); amended section 485 (20 U.S.C. 1092); added section 485(k) of the HEOA. It also requires an institution to provide a timely notice to each student who has lost eligibility for any grant, loan, or work-study assistance as a result of penalties under 484(r) (1) of the HEOA a separate clear, and conspicuous written notice that notifies the student of the loss of eligibility and advises the student of the ways in which to regain eligibility under section 484(r) (2) of the HEOA. Salina Tech provides such documentation to students during the admissions process for any program or course enrollment and to staff through orientation processes at the time employment begins.

Services for Students with Learning Disabilities

The College seeks to provide all students with a quality education and equal educational opportunities. Action will be taken to comply with legal requirements ensuring that course requirements do not discriminate or have the effect of discriminating on the basis of a student's known and adequately documented disability. Requested changes shall not be granted if they require alteration of essential elements of the program or directly related licensing requirements or would result in undue financial or administrative burdens.

Salina Tech operates under the mandate of Section 504 and 508 of the Federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) Amendments Act of 2008, which prohibit discrimination on the basis of handicap against any "otherwise qualified individual." Individuals seeking accommodations must give reasonable notice (two weeks or more) and provide documentation to support their request. Reasonable accommodations will be made on a case-by-case basis in order to ensure educational accessibility. Be aware that high school and college have different expectations and requirements and different laws regarding accommodations.

Qualified students with documented disabilities may be able to qualify for accommodation. To receive services, students are required to complete the established procedures for admission into the college and complete the Needs Assessment Form which documents the disability in order to verify eligibility under the Americans with Disabilities Act, the ADA Amendments Act (ADA AA), Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and Student Services policy.

For these purposes, a disability is defined as a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities. Major life activities include, but are not limited to, caring for oneself, performing manual tasks, seeing, hearing, eating, sleeping, walking, standing, lifting, bending, speaking, breathing, learning, reading, concentrating, thinking, communicating, and working.

Documentation of disability assists the Student Services staff in collaborating with the student to determine reasonable accommodations and/or services, which are provided on a case-by-case basis. If the submitted documentation is incomplete or does not support the student's request for accommodations and/or services, the student may be asked to provide additional documentation. For example, an Individualized Education Plan, 504 Plan, or Summary of Performance (SOP) from a secondary school without supporting information is generally not considered to be sufficient documentation.

Documentation, along with a Needs Assessment Form, should be submitted to Student Services early enough to allow sufficient time to review the request and implement reasonable accommodations and/or services. Needs Assessment Forms are available on our website and in Student Services.

For more information, consult with the Vice President of Student and Academic Affairs to determine the documentation needed.

The college reserves the right to deny admission or readmission to any individual considered detrimental to the best interests of the college community or if the college is unable to provide the services, courses or programs needed to assist any person in meeting his/her educational objectives.

Net Price Calculator

In accordance with the Higher Education Opportunity Act of 2008 Salina Tech has posted a net price calculator on its website that uses institutional data to provide estimated net price information for current and prospective students and their families based on a student's individual circumstances. The calculator does not represent a final determination, or actual award, of financial assistance, or a final net price; it is an estimate based on price of attendance and financial aid provided to students in a previous year. The price of attendance and financial aid availability change year to year. The estimates shall not be binding on the Secretary of Education, the institution of higher education, or the State. Students must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) in order to be eligible for, and receive, an actual financial aid award that includes Federal grant or loan assistance. For more information on applying for Federal student aid, go to http://www.fafsa.ed.gov/.

Voter Registration

United States citizens who are students of voting age can find voter information specific to their state of residence while attending school by visiting the Kansas Office of the Secretary of State website or visiting Student Services.

There are many policies and important information for students posted on our website and in the SATC College Catalog. The College Catalog is located on our website at: https://www.salinatech.edu/students/college-catalog/#. To request a paper copy, please contact the Student Services Office.

Annual Notification of Rights under FERPA For SATC Students

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) affords students certain rights with respect to their education records. These rights include:

(1) The right to inspect and review the student's education records within 45 days of the day the College receives a request for access.

A student should submit to the registrar, administrator, head of the academic department, or other appropriate official, a written request that identifies the record(s) the student wishes to inspect. The College official will make arrangements for access and notify the student of the time and place where the records may be inspected. If the records are not maintained by the College official to whom the request was submitted, that official shall advise the student of the correct official to whom the request should be addressed.

(2) The right to request the amendment of the student's education records that the student believes is inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise in violation of the student's privacy rights under FERPA.

A student who wishes to ask the College to amend a record should write the College official responsible for the record, clearly identify the part of the record the student wants changed and specify why it should be changed. If the College decides not to amend the record as requested, the College will notify the student in writing of the decision and the student's right to a hearing regarding the request for amendment. Additional information regarding the hearing procedures will be provided to the student when notified of the right to a hearing.

(3) The right to provide written consent before the College discloses personally identifiable information from the student's education records, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent.

The College discloses education records without a student's prior written consent under the FERPA exception for disclosure to school officials with legitimate educational interests. A school official is a person employed by the College in an administrative, supervisory, academic or research, or support staff position (including law enforcement unit personnel and health staff); a person or company with whom the College has contracted as its agent to provide a service instead of using College employees or officials (such as an attorney, auditor, or collection agent); a person serving on the Board of Trustees; or a student serving on an official committee, such as a disciplinary or grievance committee, or assisting another school official in performing his or her tasks.

A school official has a legitimate educational interest if the official needs to review an education record in order to fulfill his or her professional responsibilities for the College. Upon request, the College also discloses education records without consent to officials of another school in which a student seeks or intends to enroll. [FERPA requires an institution to make a reasonable attempt to notify each student of these disclosures unless the institution states in its annual notification that it intends to forward records on request.]

(4) The right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by the College to comply with the requirements of FERPA. The name and address of the Office that administers FERPA is:

Family Policy Compliance Office
U.S. Department of Education
400 Maryland Avenue, SW
Washington, DC 20202-5901

In addition, the below is the College directory information public notice, as required by § 99.37 of the regulations, with its annual notification of rights under FERPA.
